members of the 1920 through 1924 classes would be drafted into the Czech Armed Forces for training as reservists on 1 November 1954. A railroad employee, who was a member of the 1922 class, had received a notice of induction as early as 20 October 1954.

Comment. From now on even those classes which had escaped military service due to the status of Czechoslovakia as a German protectorate are subjected to military training. Mainly affected are the 1918 through 1922 classes. Parts of the 1923 and 1924 classes were called up for regular military service in 1945 and 1946. It is believed that the complete classes were not yet subjected to this measure at that time.
